

Certified Food Safety Manager Class 2017

The Barry-Eaton District Health Department (BEDHD) offers a Certified Food Safety Manager Class that meets the Michigan Food Law requirements of having a certified manager at the food service establishment. The class is designed to be interactive through demonstrations; as well as group activities and discussions.

Registration

Due to a limited amount of class space, all class participants must pre-register and pay. To register for a class either drop off, mail-in, or fax the registration form to the Charlotte or Hastings office. Payment options: in person at either office location, a mailed check, or by calling in a credit card number.

Looking to renew your certification without having to take a class?

If you have already completed a manager certification course through BEDHD and prefer not to have to take a class again, then you have the option of taking the class exam only. The cost of the exam is $67, and will be administered at 11:30 am on the second half-day of each scheduled class. In order to take the exam only, you will need to pre-register at least 14 days prior to the scheduled exam date. Upon request, exams can be made available in both Spanish and Chinese (Traditional and Mandarin).

If you have any questions regarding the food safety manager certification class, then please contact the course instructor, Mr. Dur Efaw at (517) 541-2629.
